

I have decided on a change of policy for this zine - COMMAND is now officially a warehouse zine. What this means is that the main feature of this zine will be the games and their press, and anything else printed here is to be considered an extra. Along with this, I am instituting a new rate schedule. From now until the end of the year, the game fee will be $5.00 - this includes your subscription to COMMAND for as long as you are an active player or stand-by (or on waiting list to get into a game). After 1/1/85, this fee will rise to $7.50. If any of you who have subscribed, and are not playing in or waiting for a game to start, feel that this does not satisfy your needs, let me know and I will send you a full refund. My reasons for this change are due to the fact that the only interest I see so far is in the games. I have had very little response from other publishers to the samples I have sent out, so I really don't have a handle on what, if anything, is going on in the hobby. And so, on with Diplomacy. ***

PRESS

(Italy) Pope Herbyan II announced today that The Holy Roman Empire was again in force and that it was spreading all over the world in every direction. Soon it will be nothing but Green Slime all over Europe.

PRESS RELEASES

VIENNA: Hey, Luigi! What gives??? What happened to our "non-aggression" pact for 1901??? I strongly suggest that you GET OUT of MY TERRITORY or you'll be eating your pizza through your NOSE!!! Austrians have long ~~poses~~ memories.

BRUGERSTEIN: Upon hearing of the invasion of their long time ally, Austria, by Italian armies, the residents of this peaceful scenic country began preparing for war in anticipation of an announcement from their ruler, King Otto the Pig. Sure enough, King Otto called for a full mobilization of all Brügersteinian armies with deployment toward Tyrolia. Brügerstein will once again defend the Austrian West.

VIENNA: King Robert I has appointed Austria's most famous citizen, Count Dracula, to the position of Secretary of War. The Count responded by immediately activating the infamous 1st Transylvanian Cavalry and moving them to Trieste.

 COMMAND TRIVIA CONTEST

Only 1 person submitted answers (guesses?) to the trivia contest - the winner is Dr. Bob Gallagher who answered all of the questions correctly. The answers were:

1. Bill Cosby played Chester Kincaid in his previous show
2. The Supremes had 12 #1 hits
3. Richie Petry's middle name was Rosebud
4. Jerry Koosman won the 5th game of the 1969 World Series.
5. John Quincy Adams received less than 1/3 of the popular vote, yet won the election as President of the United States.
6. Frederic Dannay and Manfred B. Lee are better known as Ellery Queen.

NOTES:

Did anyone take advantage of the Musical Heritage Society offer? It's well worth the effort. . . . If anyone out there is an APBA Baseball fan, I am currently organizing a 20-team postal draft league; we are going to be using the full card set without XB's and the draft is currently scheduled for mid-January. Write me soon if interested. . . . Giants just lost to St. Louis - I knew they'd find a way to blow it! ***
